

JAPANESE WILL DEVELOP NEW ELDORADO

A new Eldorado, declared to be a veritable paradise, situated about 1000 miles distant from Tokyo, teeming with mineral wealth yet untouched, is to be developed upon an extensive scale by a group of Japanese, who claim the discovery of the Pacific paradise, and who have dispatched a representative to the United States as a passenger in the Pacific Mail liner Mongolia which called here today.

It was stated on board the liner this morning that a party of 25 Japanese, who have been identified with several fishing and exploration companies throughout Japan, came upon the island, now known on late charts as Nakanehima at 21-51 N. long. and 154-16 east lat.

Hirata, a mining promoter who has had extensive experience in Korea and Manchuria, is identified with the promotion which it is said should net the discoverers something like $50,000,000 before the supply of precious metal is exhausted. At the time the Mongolia called at Kobe, a party of scientists were about to start for the new possession in the steamer Yoshioke Maru.

The island is said by the Japanese traveling to the mainland in the Mongolia, to have been discovered about a quarter of a century ago. It is uninhabited and abounds in rhinobates. One serious drawback so far encountered is the absence of fresh water. A considerable sum is to be expended for machinery and supplies.

The Mongolia was fortunate in escaping much of the heavy seas and gales that were the lot of several steamers which preceded her in crossing the Pacific. The Pacific Mail vessel reached Alaska about 9 o'clock this morning and is to remain here until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning before resuming the voyage to San Francisco. The Mongolia was not overcrowded with passengers, the vessel leaving 11 cabin, eight second class and 75 Asiatic steamer passengers here. The through list includes 55 cabin, 29 second class and 251 Asiatic steamer passengers.

The vessel bears 6000 tons of freight destined for the mainland, including silk to the value of about a million dollars.

A small list of passengers have been booked for the coast in the Mongolia.

Mauna Kea an Early Arrival

Laden with several hundred head of sheep from the ranches on the island of Hawaii, the steamer Mauna Kea was an early arrival at the port this morning, here to remain until 3 o'clock this afternoon, when the vessel again takes up the voyage to the Big Island. A number of sugar plantation managers were included among the passengers from Hilo and the Maui ports.

The Mauna Kea met with much better weather than has been the rule during the earlier part of the week. Purser Phillips reports no deep-sea shipping at island ports, save the Wilhelmnia, which was reported as taking on sugar and discharging cargo at Hilo.

Captain Cochran Leaving

Captain C. S. Cochran, for the past three years with the U. S. Revenue Cutter Thetis while that vessel has been stationed in Hawaiian waters, is to be transferred to a command elsewhere. Captain Cochran has been ordered to the coast and will be relieved by Commander Brown, who is expected will take up his duties on the Thetis before the close of December.

China Off to the Orient

Completing the loading of seven hundred tons of bunker coal, the Pacific Mail liner China sailed for Japan, China and the Philippines at noon today. The vessel was joined by a delegation of Japanese and Chinese stevedore passengers, who are en route to their native land to spend the holiday season, returning to the islands in the spring. The China carried few cabin passengers in transit.

HONOLULU TO MAKE BUT FEW MORE TRIPS

The American-Hawaiian passenger and freight steamer Honolulu, which for a year or more has been under charter to the Matson Navigation Company and operated by that line on a route between San Francisco, Honolulu and Kahului, it is said, will complete but a few more trips before reverting to her owners.

With the arrival of the Pacific Mail China yesterday, it was reported that the Honolulu is scheduled to complete but four voyages under the Matson house flag. After that time the American-Hawaiian, it is understood, will take the vessel over in preparation for passenger business between the Atlantic Coast and San Francisco by the way of the Panama canal.

This waterway, it is predicted, will be ready for business by the middle part of March, at which time it is believed that the American-Hawaiian steamers will be among the first to take up the more expeditious route between New York, the Pacific Coast and the Hawaiian Islands. The withdrawal of the Honolulu will not affect the trans-Pacific service maintained by the Matson Company, for by the time the Honolulu is withdrawn both the Matsonia and Manoa will be completed and entered into the service.

Many Changes in the Pacific Mail

Many changes are being made in the personnel of official representatives for the Pacific Mail Steamship Company throughout the several agencies. G. M. Strouthers is a through passenger in the steamer China for the Kobe office. B. C. Farle, a new cashier for Yokohama, is on the way to Japan, accompanied by Mrs. Farle. J. E. Gardner is proceeding to the Orient. Gardner is and son of Dr. J. E. Gardner, immigration interpreter at Angel Island. Like his father, the son speaks several Chinese and Japanese dialects. The young man will start at the bottom of the ladder as a freight clerk.

Wireless Sparks

Kahului wireless was in touch with the T. K. K. steamer Tenyo Maru at eight o'clock last night. The steamer is en route from Yokohama to San Francisco. It is reported that it will arrive at Honolulu at noon Monday, leaving for the coast Tuesday morning.

Small Report From Hawaii

Two plantations on the island of Hawaii have reported sugar as awaiting shipment to Honolulu or to the mainland, according to the list brought to the port this morning by Purser Phillips of the steamer Mauna Kea. Punaluu with 2548 sacks and Honoupa with 750 sacks are the only consignments noted.

Local Notices to Mariners

Hawaiian Islands, Mokuai Island, southeast side, Kamalo Point Reef, Gas buoy, 1, previously reported extinguished, was relighted November 26, 1913. A. E. Arledge, Inspector, 18th Lighthouse District.

Rithee Not Yet a Tanker

Despite the rumor circulated in Honolulu and coast shipping circles that the well-known bark R. P. Rithee was soon to join the ranks of the maritime "has beens," the emphatic denial of the report that the vessel is to become a tanker was received here today. It was stated that the Rithee, which has been a factor in the movement of general cargo between the coast and the islands for many years, was to be sold to one of the oil companies and would be converted into a barge. The Rithee is declared again to be in the transportation game with the opening of the season.

Santa Maria May Proceed to Coast

Unless an unfavorable report is rendered by Samuel Lyle, who left last night for Kahului to make an inspection of the damage done the Union Oil tanker Santa Maria, which went aground off Kahului breakwater, that vessel may proceed to the coast for repairs. Lyle was to examine the vessel's bottom today. It is reported that a considerable portion of the crude oil was refloated. Kahului harbor is covered with the material. The steamer had fuel for discharge at Hilo.

Falls of Clyde Returns to the Coast

Taking ballast and destined for Monterey, the Associated Oil Company ship Falls of Clyde sailed this morning, following the discharge of 16,000 barrels of fuel oil brought here for the local branch of the company. The prediction is made that the gallant ship will complete a smart passage to the California port.

Annie Johnson Made Fast Time

Completing a smart passage from Mahukona to San Francisco in twelve days, the schooner Annie Johnson caused coast shipping circles to credit the trim windjammer with a long mark of approval. The time is nearly equal to that made by some of the slower steamers in trading between the island of Hawaii and the mainland. The Annie Johnson met with considerable heavy weather on the homeward voyage.

Bishop Restarick will preach at St. Clement's Church tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock.

CONTINENT TO SOUTH HEARS OF TERRITORY

Hawaii's advertising for the 1914 Floral Parade and Mid-Winter Carnival has reached Australia and, according to letters read at the meeting of the Promotion Committee yesterday afternoon, is making an impression to the extent that these islands may expect a large number of visitors from Sydney and other large cities on the southern continent next February. Several communications from leading clubs were read, saying that posters and crossroads maps had been received and given prominent space in the clubhouses.

The report of A. P. Taylor, in charge of the committee's branch office in San Francisco, was read and showed that he is already doing a large amount of work. Both kamaianas and tourists are daily visiting the office, he says, the former to say "hello" and the latter to secure information and literature concerning the islands. Every outgoing steamer to Hawaii is being well supplied with literature by Mr. Taylor, and he is making it a point to meet every incoming boat. The committee is also in receipt of a letter from the Tasmanian tourist bureau at Hobart, acknowledging the receipt of posters and maps. Lloyd Childs, who is touring the mainland with a troupe of Hawaiian troubadours and incidentally giving moving picture lectures on the islands, writes the committee that he is now playing in Oklahoma and meeting with great success. The Promotion Committee has also received a San Francisco-Oakland-Alameda telephone directory from the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, which may be used by the residents of Honolulu.

H. Hackfeld and Company have been advised that the Pacific Mail steamer Manchuria sailed from San Francisco yesterday afternoon, destined for the coast of Asia by the way of Honolulu.

Chief Operator W. E. Gawthorne, of the Marconi service and associated with the Oceanic liner Ventura was removed from that vessel to the hospital yesterday suffering from an attack of malaria.

A large quantity of meat and refrigerated provisions were discharged from the Oceanic liner Ventura before that vessel sailed for San Francisco yesterday afternoon. The supplies came from Australia.

Virginian Packed to the Hatch Covers

When the American-Hawaiian freighter Virginian sailed from San Francisco for Salina Cruz, taking in transit several thousand tons of Hawaiian products, that vessel was packed with freight. A cargo amounting to 13,000 tons was placed aboard for transshipment at the isthmus of Tehuantepec. Under the new arrangement, freight is now taken aboard at Honolulu and the island ports direct for Boston, Philadelphia and Charleston. It is claimed that a saving to shippers amounting to between $2.50 and $4 a ton is effected.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

The hearing of A. Marcellino, indicted for forgery, was continued two weeks by Judge Robinson this morning.

Francis Gay of Gay & Robinson, Makaweli, Kauai, is registered at the St. Francis Hotel, San Francisco. He is accompanied by Mrs. Gay.

Health Inspector D. S. Bowman of Hawaii is recovering from a 10 days' illness, according to news received from Hilo by Dr. J. S. B. Pratt.

T. S. Choy this morning was fined $50 and costs by Circuit Judge Robinson for smoking opium, sentence being suspended until Monday morning.

Japanese undesirable to the number of nine persons, including eight women and one man, were deported by the federal immigration officials today, having been put on board the Pacific Mail liner China for return to Japan.

S. Ito, associate editor of the Hawaii Shimpo, suffered a badly wrenched leg when he slipped and fell from a Rapid Transit car last night. He was removed to the Japanese Charity hospital and is reported to be much improved.

Ropino, sentenced to 10 days' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $10 for purchasing an army shirt from an enlisted soldier, was released from jail today after taking the poor convict's oath.

The final accounts of T. Odo, administrator of the estate of Senjiro Odo, were approved by Judge Whitney today, the administrator being granted a fee of $500 and discharged from further service.

The following new citizens were naturalized today in federal court: Joseph Feltrinelli, bandmaster at Schofield Barracks; George McKinlay, James William Harvey, Ernst Brecht and Antone Silva Mello.

Owing to the fact that Glens McCracken is suffering with a felon on her finger it has been necessary for Mrs. Worthington to secure the services of Mrs. Elsa Cross Howard, a talented local pianist, who will render two solos during the concert next Tuesday night.

A large number of residents of the other islands are registered at the Young hotel today, among them being Mr. and Mrs. John Ross of Hakalau, John T. Moir of Papaikou, C. F. Eckart of Olau, J. Atkins Wight of Kohala, Mr. and Mrs. George Gibb of Naelehu, William Pullar of Honoumuli, D. B. Macconachie of Hilo, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Ogg of Pahala and A. E. Brune of Wailuku.

WAILUKU, Maui, Nov. 28.—Charles B. Wells, for nearly 20 years manager of the Wailuku Sugar Company, arrived on Wednesday's Mauna Kea for a stay of a few days in Wailuku. He is the guest of Manager H. B. Penhallow at the manager's residence. Mr. Wells is loud in his praises of the improvements that he notices in Wailuku during the last three years since his last visit. The excellent condition of the Maui roads he remarked upon especially.

The funeral services of Manuel Gomes Faria, who died at his home on Punchbowl street Thursday evening, will be held at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from Silva's undertaking establishment, interment to follow in the Catholic cemetery. Faria came to Honolulu in the early eighties from Santa Luzia, island of Madeira, and was well known throughout the islands. He is survived by a widow and four children; a brother, Jose Gomes Faria who resides on Beretania street, and a sister now living in Madeira. He was a member of the Lusitana and Sao Martinho societies. Faria's death was due to tuberculosis, from which he had been suffering for some time.

ROMANCE OF SIBLEY STILL MUCH ALIVE

[By Latest Mail]

MANILA.—Far across the ranges where the valleys of the Cagayan stretch back hundreds of square miles with not a soul inhabiting them, an American soldier, deserter from the army, one of the non-conformist type with the wanderlust in his veins, wandered alone never resting and always pursued. The name of Sibley still furnishes a fund of stories that gain in picturesque quality as the days of the empire fade farther and farther into the distance.

They tell in Cagayan valley of a bearded man on a large American horse which once had belonged to a trooper, riding through the night and finally evading his pursuers by a clever coup de force, a wild dash through a river and a silent reformation a few rods below. They tell of his disguises as a woman, and of the friendly support given to the fugitive by the people of southern Isabela.

After a long and unsuccessful chase Governor Curry finally induced Sibley to surrender and serve his sentence.

That sentence has been served, and Sibley, mindful of the friendliness of the Isabelans, has gone back to the scene of his early flight and cast in his lot with the people. He is living there now on an hacienda and plans to remain there until he dies.

MINISTER REINSCH HAS WARM SPOT IN HEART FOR VISIT TO HONOLULU

Hon. Paul Reinsch, American minister to China, was highly pleased with the day he spent in Honolulu on his way to the Orient. In a letter to W. R. Farrington received in the Mongolia mail, Minister Reinsch says: "We are now nearing our journey's end and it has been a very agreeable and restful trip; but the thing that we shall remember with most pleasure is our visit to Honolulu. We not only had a delightful time, but also got a fine comprehensive impression of your beautiful home town and its life. The interest in Hawaii thus begun will be permanent and I hope to know more about the islands by personal visits in the future. To the kind friends who joined in making our stay so pleasant I beg to express my thanks and our highest regards, to Mr. Allen, Mr. McCandless, Senator Cooke, Prof. Bryan, Mr. Mott-Smith and all who were so kind to us. I hope to meet them all again."

ASSASSIN FAILS TO REACH YUAN SHIH-KAI

(Special cable to the Japanese Chronicle.)

TOKIO, Japan, Nov. 29.—A message received here today from Peking, dated November 19, is to the effect that an assassin entered the residence of President Yuan Shih-Kai, but was intercepted before he could reach the room where the president was sleeping. The man was captured and found to have weapons concealed on him.

SUPREME COURT AFFIRMS OPINION OF LOWER BODY

In a written decision covering more than 10 typewritten pages the supreme court today handed down a decision affirming the judgment of the first circuit court and holding against Henry C. Hapal, G. W. A. Hapal and Nelson C. Sniffen in their suit against May K. Brown and a number of others to quiet title to a large tract of valuable land on the island of Maui. The plaintiffs claimed certain undivided interests under the will of one Keaka. Two trials have been held in the circuit court, the first decision in favor of the defendants being reversed by the supreme court. The second trial resulted also in a judgment for defendants, but on different grounds, which the higher court now sustains.

HILO NOTES

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.)
HILO, Nov. 25.—Two young Filipinos, Sancho Bidallon and Brorio Flores, are being held by the police on suspicion that they are the pickpockets who have been causing reports to be made to the police by patrons of the theaters and the baseball games. In one instance reported, a Japanese claimed to have been robbed of a purse while at the Galety theater. He said that he was sitting next to a Filipino and that when the show was over he discovered that the sleeve of his kimono had been cut and that his purse was missing.

F. Y. Ching of Bishop's bank left Monday for two weeks' vacation in Honolulu.

Thanksgiving services of vocal and instrumental music and appropriate sermons and prayer, were held Thursday morning, excepting at the First church, Rev. Lesna's congregation joined with that of the First foreign church for union services. At the Catholic church the usual 6 o'clock mass was the holiday services, but prayers for nation and territory were included, as has been the custom in all Catholic churches in America on Thanksgiving day since 1888.

Rev. Fenton-Smith preached the Thanksgiving sermon at the Episcopal church, he taking as the subject of his address, "God—A Spiritual Force—A Cause for Thanksgiving." There was a large congregation present at the Episcopal services.

In appealing words of religious fervor and inspired by ardent patriotism, Rev. Laughton delivered the union service sermon at the First Foreign church. He took as his text Psalm 109, his subject being, "The Secret of America's Greatness, a Study in True Patriotism."

Residents of Honoumuli and vicinity had the pleasure of attending a very enjoyable benefit concert and dance at the Japanese Christian Boarding School last Saturday evening, as well as among a worthy cause, the proceeds of the affair going to the school, to be used for building an addition. There was a large crowd present to hear the program of vocal and instrumental music and to indulge in the dancing which followed.

Hilo Elks held a "get-together" meeting, or a social session, on Tuesday evening, which was, in quite a sense, a "get-together" session. The purpose of the session was purely that of good fellowship and the purpose was fully fulfilled. While the chief features were plenty to eat and something to quench the thirst, this was not all, for there was sustenance for the brain as well as for the stomach. In fact, the bill of fare for the "eat" was also the program for the speeches.

Miss Lloyd, representing Whitney & Marsh of Honolulu, has been exhibiting ready-to-wear and fancy goods at the Hilo hotel during the past 10 days. She is being assisted by Miss Meyers of Honolulu.

CATHOLIC BAZAR READY FOR BIG TRADE TODAY

"Do your Christmas shopping early and shop at the Catholic fair." This is the slogan of the ladies of the Catholic fair who are in charge of the bazaar which opened at noon today in Bishop park, opposite the Young hotel building, and it will undoubtedly prove to be a taking one. Bishop park has undergone a wonderful transformation and the fair, with the favorable co-operation of the elements, should be one of the most successful of its kind ever held in Honolulu.

Commensurate tents of white and brown canvas, rendered exceedingly attractive by decorations with flowers, palms, ferns and bamboo, form the booths in which a variety of things to wear and to eat are on sale. The greater part of the decorative work was done this morning by a large force of ladies and assistants, who took charge of the park and spared no pains to secure the best results. The electric lights were also installed, as the bazaar will be running full blast until late this evening.

Perhaps the most attractive booth in the park is that in charge of Mrs. E. J. Timberlake, where tea and cakes are being served, Mrs. S. Shoba, in dainty Japanese costume, presiding at the urn. This booth is distinctively Japanese in effect and, at the right is the representation of a Japanese tea house, where one may enter and partake of the leading refreshment of the Orient. The interior of the house is decorated with small cherry trees and Japanese prints, while the other section is hung with a large Japanese parasol. At the extreme end of the park is the doll booth, which should be a center of attraction for the children. A huge doll, dressed in the highest degree of fashion, will be raffled this evening to the person holding the winning number. This booth is in charge of Mrs. E. M. Watson, and is prettily decorated. Next comes the ready-to-wear clothing booth in charge of Mrs. C. H. Haven, and here may be found a variety of useful articles from holoaks to children's rompers.

Mrs. A. J. Wirtz, assisted by a corps of ladies, is in charge of the fancy work booth, and here is just the place to buy useful and attractive Christmas presents for wife, sister, grandmother, aunt or sweetheart. Prices are reasonable, too, and one has a large variety to choose from. Another attraction is found in the large booth in the center, where ice cream and coffee will be served, being in charge of Mrs. A. G. M. Robertson and Mrs. C. W. Ziegler. The booth is prettily decorated in white, green and white, and the small scattered tables have covers of white and yellow, each being graced by a maiden in fairy costume. The center of attraction is the delicatessen booth, where there is on sale every sort of tempting home-made eatable. Pies, cakes, jellies and bread from the ovens of Honolulu's famous culinary artists, grace the long tables where they are temptingly arranged. It is expected that this booth will be sold out by 6 o'clock and if so, the place will be cleared and turned into a theater, where several acts of amateur and professional talent will hold forth on the boards. The first performance scheduled to commence at 7:15 o'clock. Last but not least, are two other booths, one for the sale of cigars and the other for lemonade. By 12:30 o'clock the park was well filled with people and it is expected that there will be nothing left to sell after the bazaar closes this evening.

An unexplainable thing, though, is now the deadly blows could have been delivered and still have created no sound sufficient to penetrate to the hearing of the woman. That the crime must have been committed some time after Akona left the building, and after the woman had fallen asleep, seems the only solution of this part of the problem.

Deputy William Lassar was at once notified of the murder by Lewis, and with several other police officers he has been conducting a close examination in hopes of finding clues that will lead to the capture of the assassins. Inquiries and investigations made by him show that either before or after the killing of the country merchant, the murderers secured all the money in the store till and that a number of new watches were missing. Otherwise everything was intact.

Up until the present, it has seemed impossible to get track of suspicious characters in the neighborhood and search for the weapon with which the man was killed has been in vain. Upon discovery of the watches, which were offered for sale, seemed to rest all hope for a clue that will lead to the criminals. Even this will be a difficult and slow method as the watches were of a cheap and common style, of the variety that ranges in price from one to ten dollars. To secure a description of them it will be necessary to communicate with the people who supplied them to the merchant. The wife would be unable to identify the watches as they had been in the store but a few days.

Akoma, the murdered man, had been located in Kona for many years, but at one time was engaged in business in Onomea. Both he and his wife are well advanced past middle age and so far as is known they have no descendants on the island. The store in which Akoma and his wife resided is located just across the road from the Central Kona church, or Rey. Baker's church, as it is usually called.

Crawford Will Be Host.

As a fitting celebration of the first anniversary of the birth of Miss Annie Leinoala Crawford, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Crawford, a luau will be given at the home, 1485 Lilihua street, tomorrow evening, to which a number of friends have been invited. A delightful program has been arranged for the occasion.

WILLIAM THOMPSON—Friend and foe should now unite to make Governor Pinkham's nomination a success.

A DAINTY TOILET ARTICLE.

Every lady who desires to keep up her attractive appearance, while at theater, attending receptions, when shopping, while traveling and on all occasions should carry in her purse a booklet of Gouard's Oriental Beauty Leaves. This is a dainty little booklet of exquisitely perfumed powdered leaves which are easily removed and applied to the skin. It is invaluable when the face becomes moist and flushed and is far superior to a powder puff as it does not spill and soil the clothes.

It removes dirt, soot and grease from the face, imparting a cool delicate bloom to the complexion. Put up in white and pink and sent anywhere on receipt of 10 cents in stamp or coin. F. T. HOPKINS, 37 Great Jones street, New York.

The Persian pavilion site on the Panama Pacific exposition grounds was dedicated with befitting ceremony.

DEATHS
FAIRWEATHER.—In San Francisco, Nov. 28, 1913, Mrs. Emily Jane Fairweather, mother of Dr. Norman, Dr. Alfred and Miss Ethel Fairweather of Honolulu.
